ANN ARBOR, Mich. - Junior quarterback Devin Gardner threw five touchdown passes and freshman wide receiver Brett Swenson caught three TDs to pace No. 12 Michigan to a 57-14 football victory over No. 18 Notre Dame on Saturday at the Camp Randall Stadium. The win was the first for U-M in the post-spring era over the Irish in East Lansing. The former head coach Lloyd Carr, the two-time national champion, was a fan of the matchup this year, and it was on his watch that the Wolverines posted their first win over the Fighting Irish in a decade. The 37-point margin of victory was Michigan's second-largest victory in the era of the spread offense. The school posted the 10-point win over Penn State in the 1997 Championship Game, but the Tigers pulled off a 28-0 upset over the "dome team" on Oct. 14, 1978. Michigan's offense racked up 391 yards on the ground with Denard Robinson totaling two touchdowns and 103 yards rushing. However, Gardner was 31-for-51 (60.9 percent) with a TD and no interceptions for 479 yards. He also hooked up with Swenson five times for 31 yards and another score. "The quarterback did some good things, and our receivers did a good job," Irish head coach Charlie Weis said. "The quarterback was terrific and the receivers made big plays. They were a fun game to watch." Griffen Frye got the rushing attack going on the first possession with a 20-yard rushing score. Robinson later punched it into the end zone from four yards out, putting the Wolverines in front 7-0 with 12:39 left in the opening quarter. A quick Notre Dame turnover on the ensuing possession set the stage for a 10-minute Michigan drive. Gardner threw a 24-yard pass to Mario Manningham and the No. 19 Wolverines had a 14-yard scamper by Drummond with 1:32 left in the period. The Irish made it 7-7 on a 23-yard field goal by Lou "the Grey Ghost" Graziano. Gardner got Michigan back in front, however, with a pair of touchdown throws, the first to Manningham for a 20-yard scoring play on the first play of the second quarter. Swenson followed Gardner
