As for TOTY and GOAT, which are a given, I think Messi will absolutely win that in 2K. And I think they went all out with Messi's stats. To quote David Fickling, WOW! > Messi is superior to Ronaldo and Rooney and enjoys equal status in terms of pure footballer > Messi and Ronaldo have more assists than all four of the other players combined > Messi has 50% more shots on target than Ronaldo > Messi created more scoring chances than any other player in the entire game while only conceding 4 > Ronaldo and Messi each had 40 shots inside the box, even though only Messi attempted 56 more shots in total > Messi and Ronaldo had the most combined shots in the opposition box > Even though no one else has more than 7 goals, Ronaldo's 6 goals have been more than sufficient in the absence of Ronaldo's shoulder injury which should force Messi to take charge of the number 10 role more frequently > Ronaldo had more shots in the first half than in the entire second half of the game (48 to 45) and created 11 more shots in the 2nd half > Ronaldo's vertical accuracy (90%) was the highest in any game this season > Messi created more scoring chances than any other player in the entire game while only conceding 4 > Messi has more assists than all four of the other players combined > Messi and Ronaldo have more assists than all four of the other players combined > Messi has 50% more shots on target than Ronaldo > Messi and Ronaldo each had 40 shots inside the box, even though only Messi attempted 56 more shots in total > Messi and Ronaldo each had 21 shots on target in their opposition box, 6 more than the next closest player > Messi and Ronaldo had the most combined shots in the opposition box > Messi and Ronaldo had the most combined shots in the box > Messi and Ronaldo had the most combined shots in the box > Messi and Ronaldo had the most combined

shots in the box > Messi and Ronaldo had the most combined shots in the box > Messi had more passes into the final third than any other player > Messi and Ronaldo had the most combined touches on goal, with 10 each > Messi and Ronaldo each had 17 shots on goal, twice as many as the next most popular player combined > Messi and Ronaldo created more scoring chances than any other player
